

I am sending you seeds of a fine Amaryllis which grows here on the veldt, and which we wrongly call the Veldt Lily. It may be Hippeastrum; its flowers are immense white with pink stripes; its bulb is a foot long. It seems to thrive in the very dry weather."